Renee Guillory : Best Hikes with Dogs Arizona before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Best Hikes with Dogs Arizona:

While we obviously haven't had a chance to use the guide yet, I did compare it against some Grand Canyon hikes we did a few years ago and against some other books I've picked up.Directions to trailheads is very clear. Information on trails is well-presented, giving more than enough information to decide if the trail is appropriate for you and your pet. Trails directions are well-written and seem easy to follow. I can't see any negatives to this book so far. It has already been a great help in deciding where to hike. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good book to read! By Brittany Newland I love this book! I wish it was a little more "flip through it to find a good spot today" instead of a read through to find information, but it still helped us find some good hiking spots. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Good descriptions By neats We had a large dog and were looking for places to take her. We found the book about Arizona only very little about the area we lived in. If you are able to travel all over Arizona this would be a good book for you.

Now they share their favorite trails, presented through dog-centric eyes. On most trails, you'll encounter few people to dodge. Most hikes offer shade, if not water, to help keep your dog cool in extreme Arizona conditions. The trails in Best Hikes with Dogs Arizona emphasize terrain that's easy on the paws and give advance warning, trail by trail, on canine hazards to watch for. There are also tips on dealing with dog emergencies and for hiking with minimum dog-impact on the environment. Ranging from short day hikes to extended backpacking trips, many trails included are clustered around urban areas including Phoenix, Tucson, Flagstaff, Sedona/Prescott, and other communities in Mogollon Rim country. There are hikes as far-flung as the Mexican border and in the White Mountains of eastern Arizona.

Sparky and Artemis, along with their scribe, Rene Guillory, are great tour guides. This is one of the best hiking guides. (Southwest Book Views) A helpful read for those who enjoy getting outside with their canine companions. (Tucson-Pima Public Library) This is a good book for anyone who owns a dog, likes to hike, and wants to get out more. (Arizona Republic) About the Author Rene Guillory, a freelance writer for the Arizona Daily Sun, has served in several leadership capacities for the Grand Canyon chapter of the Sierra Club. Sparky, a female Huskie mix, has more than a decade of experience on the trail; Artemis is a young female Akita-Collie mix. They live in Phoenix, Arizona.
