I'm a fairly new hiker). Also has sections on what to include in the first aid kit for your dog and hiking tips (preparing for your hike, etc.), and tons of maps. It divides the hikes into different areas around Las Vegas and within each area goes into detail about each hike. I definitely recommend this book!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. A MUSTBy Sarah BrownWhether you are just beginning to venture out or if you are an expert hiker, this book is a MUST for you and your four legged friend, as you begin to explore the desert around Las Vegas. The descriptions of the hikes are enticing and most importantly accurate in terms to difficulty, length and what is needed for preparation before you go. In fact the book provides great information about caring for your dog in the Las Vegas heat and desert terrain which is asset to anyone with a dog even if you are not a hiker and just plan to stay in the city. However, if you and your "best friend" do plan any hiking or adventure trips this book is a MUST. Lewis and Jacoby-Garret have taken the time and given the attention to detail that will make this book relevant and helpful for hikers in the Las Vegas area for years to come.Thanks!Sarah, Matt and Heidi(the dog)2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Very useful book for responsible hikers!By J. QuadeThis book is great because it not only tells you which hikes are suitable for dogs, but also offers tips and anecdotes about hiking etiquette, types of breeds suitable for different terrain, etc. Things I would not realize, such as using protection for the paws, are very helpful. Plus it's well written and easy to understand - and anyone who has read hiking books in the past knows that some are more confusing than helpful! Plus, I love all the dog pics....

Best Hikes with Dogs Las Vegas and Beyond offers more than 20 years of combined hiking experience by the authors with their own dogs, and they look at the land through dog-centric eyes. Most of these trails are uncrowded, and include some shady respites -- if not water, too -- to help keep your dog cool in extreme Nevada conditions. Ranging from short day hikes to extended backpacking trips, most trails in this guidebook are located in the Desert National Wildlife Range, Lake Mead and Spring Mountains National Recreation Areas, Red Rock Canyon National Conservation Area, and Valley of Fire State Park. Also included is a Trail Finder chart that lists hikes by terrain, difficulty for dogs, leash regulations, and more.

[If] you have a dog you like to take hiking, this book is for you. As usual with Mountaineers books, the maps are excellent, the photos (dogs on the trail) funny and illustrative, and the writing clear and concise. (Nevada Appeal)You do not have to have a dog to use the well-researched informationIf you do hike with your dog, both of you will benefit from the information. (Las Vegas -Journal)Well-structured, easy to follow, fact-filled resource for individuals, families, and their canines. (Nevada Woman)If you're a hiking enthusiast and a dog lover, this guidebook tells you how to combine the two in Las Vegas.
