She is always looking for places that are dog-friendly, hiking, beaches, etc. She's done some of the hikes listed, but will try some she didn't know about.

Great resource for those who are relatively new to the area. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good reference for hiking with your pets By A. Southern California hikes selected to delight your dog (and you) many accessible from urban areas More than 60 dog-suitable trails, accessible from metro areas including Los Angeles, Palm Springs, San Diego, and Santa Barbara Most trails are lightly traveled; off-leash permitted on nearly half What to pack for your pooch on the trail Allen Riedel and his canine trail companions, Chewbacca and Socrates, have hiked thousands of miles together in southern California to select the best dog-friendly, dog-fun, and dog-safe hikes in the region. More than two-thirds of the hikes are on lesser-known trails where travel is light and where you're unlikely to meet horses, bicycles, or motorized vehicles. On nearly half of the trails, off-leash hiking is permitted. The hikes avoid steep, rocky terrain and many offer lakes or streams as a reward. Paw comfort rating (whether you'll be walking on sand, dirt, or pavement) is clearly noted in the information block at the beginning of each hike description; potential dog hazards such as ticks or poison oak are described in the text. A Trail Finder chart in the front of the book indicates trail length, which hikes include water, swimming, or shade, which are "good for senior dogs" or "best for fit dogs".

"An interesting compendium of information for dog lovers looking for hiking trails, many of which are off the beaten track." -- Santa Barbara News-Press "Dog owners who hike - this one's for you." -- The Los Angeles Times "Riedel is incredibly thorough." -- San Luis Obispo Tribune About the Author Allen Riedel is reporter for Localhikes.com and writes a monthly hiking column for the Press-Enterprise. Chewbacca (aka "Chewee") is a Jack Russell terrier/Chihuahua mix; Socrates (aka "Socs") is a Schnauzer/terrier mix. Both dogs were rescued through the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors Pet Adoption Program.
