an Escape from Civilization:

Best Tent Camping: Alabama is your guide to the 50 best tent-camping sites in the Heart of Dixie. Whether you prefer the pristine white beaches of the Gulf of Mexico, or the mountains and canyons of the Tennessee Valley, or something in-between, Alabama has it all. The guide takes you to the most beautiful, yet lesser known, of the state's campsites, guaranteeing you a peaceful retreat. Each guidebook entry provides the latest maps of the grounds; each entry also alerts you to the best sites within the facility to ensure a rewarding and relaxing visit. The guidebook's campsite ratings on beauty, privacy, spaciousness, quietness, security, and cleanliness let you know whether or not each campground is the one you seek at any particular time. In addition, each site entry has complete contact and registration information, operating hours, and a list of restrictions. Directions to the site come complete with GPS coordinates to put you at the main gate.

About the Author Joe Cuhaj is one of "those" Yankees who moved to Alabama and fell in love with the state and its amazing landscapes. A freelance writer by night, he is a software programmer by day and an outdoor enthusiast at all times. His career also has included years in radio broadcasting and public relations. Regardless of what he does for work, most every weekend will find this author/computer geek/broadcaster/PR guy hiking the trails of the state, building new trails, or pitching a tent for a night out under the stars. Based in Daphne, AL, Joe's love of his adopted home state shows in the titles of other books he has authored Baseball in Mobile, Hike America: Alabama, Hiking Alabama, and Paddling Alabama.
