From the PublisherFrom the vast northern forests to the desert regions of the south, hunters can find trophy elk, mule deer, whitetails, pronghorn, moose, mountain lion, black bear, bighorn sheep, and mountain goats-often on public land. Veteran hunter, photographer, and outdoor writer Ron Spomer provides all the information hunters need to plan a successful trip to Idaho. Thorough information on each animal will be accompanied by accurate distribution maps and hunting tips. Area by area breakdowns of opportunities will detail where to go and when. Travel information, guides and outfitters, applying for licenses, and much more are covered in this excellent guide. There is no more comprehensive source of information for hunting big game in the great state of Idaho.
