Denham Carr World adventurers be advised: This is a useful book for anyone interested in cruise ship holidays, traveling in South America or even just for those readers who enjoy a well written travel story. Bell has a good sense of humour and at times it's as if you can see the author grinning with delight as she recounts adventures in Rio, Brazil, the River, the West Indies all the way to sunny Miami

USA. The book is full of useful tips and ideas and it really is a joy reading travel writing by an author who clearly loves food and doesn't mind sharing their passion. Nice photos, nicely written, a highly informative book. I thoroughly enjoyed it and would recommend it to anyone who enjoys travel yarns and especially those thinking about cruise ship holidays or planning a trip to the Americas.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Fantastic taste of a South American cruiseBy itardI really enjoyed this travel journal. It has definitely whet my appetite for discovering more about cruising and South America, particularly the River. It would be a great read for anyone not sure if they want to go on a cruise (this book will settle the question for sure!) or thinking about hitting a few cities on the continent. A fun read for any like-minded intrepid traveller.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Loved it!By Janice Kaye CarrI found it very informative. i have not yet had the opportunity to go cruising, but this book made it sound so interesting and also easy. I just love travel books and this one lived up to my expectations.

A light hearted and entertaining travel journal of the authors trip from Rio de Janeiro, up the Amazon river and through the West Indies and Caribbean to Ft. Lauderdale. A must read if you are interested in cruising or travelling in South America.

About the AuthorMargaret Z. Bell resides in Perth, Western Australia. Her friends and family, however, aren't sure that is true, as she spends many weeks a year indulging her passion - travelling! With her trusty "sidekick" husband Mike as travelling companion, these two are constantly looking for new opportunities to explore the globe. The author has also spent many years working and living around the world and has spent time in Britain, USA, Canada, Singapore, Indonesia, Hong Kong and mainland China.
