it would be worth my time, and all praised Boston Neighborhoods, 2nd: A Food Lover's Walking, Eating, and Shopping Guide to Ethnic Enclaves in and around Boston (Neighborhood Series):

Walk a little, nosh a little, and get immersed in this lively, food-focused guide to 13 ethnic neighborhoods in and around Boston. This city is steeped in history and tradition. It is also a melting pot, where generations of immigrant cultures mingle. Lynda Morgenroth, a Boston-based writer and longtime resident, leads readers on artfully crafted walking tours that will let them discover the diverse neighborhoods created by the interweaving of people. Sample authentic Korean and Portuguese dishes plus eighteen other ethnic cuisines. Navigate like a native through Russian groceries and Latin bodegas. Visit Chinese herbalists and become well-versed in local history and architecture. In the neighborhoods, experience hidden treasures such as: The North End, where the pasta and the pastry are multilayered Little Armenia, where a gourmet grocery is also the neighborhood gathering place* Dudley Square, where there are limbo pies, a Victorian bus station, and majestic murals in unlikely places

Praise for the previous edition: "Boston Neighborhoods is an expansive, spicy, much-needed contribution to the literature of Boston guidebooks." --Jim Collins, Editor, Yankee "An ode to the delicious markets, bakeries, and restaurants awaiting culinary explorers." --Cindy Atoji, Magazine Editor, Boston Herald
