If a bowl of clam chowder is not your idea of an adventurous ethnic dining experience, hop on the T and discover thirteen of Boston's incredible ethnic neighborhoods. Boston is steeped in history and tradition. It is also a melting pot, where generations of immigrant cultures mingle. Lynda Morgenroth, a Boston-based writer and longtime resident, leads you on artfully crafted walking tours that will let you discover the diverse neighborhoods created by the interweaving of people. Sample authentic Korean and Portuguese dishes plus eighteen other ethnic cuisines. Navigate like a native through Russian groceries and Latin bodegas. Visit Chinese herbalists and become well-versed in local history and architecture. Hidden treasures await you in neighborhoods such as The North End, where pasta and the pastry are multilayered; Little Armenia, where a gourmet Armenian grocery is also the neighborhood gathering place; Dudley Square, where you'll find limbo pies, a Victorian bus station, and majestic murals in unlikely places.
