Stuart Campbell : Boswell's Bus Pass before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Boswell's Bus Pass:

Armed with a bus pass and supported by a relay team of equally eccentric and badly behaved companions Stuart Campbell follows the bus routes that Dr Johnson and Boswell would have used had they delayed their journey to the Western isles of Scotland by 238 years. Includes an astonishing set of previously unpublished love letters from Boswell's servant, Joseph Ritter, to his master's long-suffering wife, Margaret. Includes humorous drawings by Stuart Milne

About the Author Stuart Campbell has worked as an English teacher, Advisor, communications Lecturer, Education Manager, and Consultant in the Lothians for longer than he cares to remember. He is now gainfully employed as a mental health trainer for Health in Mind, an Edinburgh based charity. He has previously co-written A Dead Man's Chest, an educational resource published by the BBC as part of the Stevenson centennial celebrations. He has also written for the Guardian and The Scottish Book Collector and is the author of the acclaimed RLS in Love.
