Simon Veness, Susan Veness : Brit Guide Disneyland Resort Paris 2010-2011 (Brit Guides) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Brit Guide Disneyland Resort Paris 2010-2011 (Brit Guides):

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Excellent - Like your own personal tour guide! By Nicole Xtl travel extensively, have lived in 3 countries, and am a big fan of travel guides. Lonely Planet has excellent advice, but is like reading a telephone book; Eyewitness guides have excellent photos and graphics, but the information is often outdated and is written in a manner like an encyclopaedia - no candid banter. Prior to our upcoming trip to the Disneyland Resort in Paris, I wanted a guide, and after much research, chose this one. This book is fantastic - the authors are obviously well travelled and know Disneyland exceptionally well. They provide very current information (it appears it's updated every 2 years), which is presented in a candid and relaxed manner. If something is not worth wasting time with, they tell you; if attractions ordinarily have a long line, they offer the best times to visit; moreover, they give information on the food, transport, attractions and shows, regional displays and parades, with accurate pricings for everything and website links. They even give you some tips that only comes with experience, such as when the characters ordinarily appear on Main Street and which characters to expect there at which times. In addition, it is beautifully illustrated with lots of photographs - even pictures of the authors in the parks! It gives you that little more that Lonely Planet doesn't - an image in your mind of what to expect. Just a footnote: the book is great for anyone, but is exceptionally perfect for Brits, as it also offers a few local places where you can purchase tickets, find well-experienced travel agents, where you can exchange pounds for Euro, etc. I highly recommend this travel guide - you won't need anything further to inform you about Disneyland Paris!

At last the ultimate guide from the undisputed number 1 experts on Walt Disney attractions! Simon and Susan Veness come second to none in advice and detail. Bang up to date, this brilliant new guide helps you plan the best holiday for everyone. Every detail on them parks, places to stay, eating at any time, getting around, shopping for everybody, seasonal events, what else to see in Paris. The best times, handy tips and tactics, identify those hidden costs, what to do if the weather changes or if the children get tired, how to relax or party when the kids are safely in bed. What, where and when? It's all here, for tots to adults. With a little planning, you can do Disney and have a great time.

About the Author Simon and Susan Veness are acknowledged as Britain's experts for all things Disney, having accumulated almost 40 years' experience between them of theme parks, Orlando, Florida and Disneyland Paris. They have a home just minutes 'from the magic' in Orlando and are constantly in touch with all the developments in the amazing Central Florida holiday destination. Both have writing backgrounds - UK-born Simon in national newspaper journalism, and American Susan in website discussion forums and online information sites - as well as being keen-eyed tourists, and together they have pioneered the unique Personalised Itinerary Planner, which is now a key component of their work. In addition to their writing for Foulsham, they contribute to a wide range of media, including newspapers, magazines and the Internet.
