Terry Storry : British White Water before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised British White Water:

A comprehensive canoeing guide covers the 100 best white water rivers of England, Wales and Scotland.

About the AuthorTerry Storry, who died in a climbing accident in 2004, was a BCU Level 5 Kayak coach and the author of three books about canoeing. He had paddled in Chile, Nepal, New Zealand and the United States as well as throughout Europe. He spent 11 years as a coach at the National Centre for Mountain Activities in north Wales.
