Nathan J. Robinson : California Sojourn: An Illustrated Diary of Los Angeles before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised California Sojourn: An Illustrated Diary of Los Angeles:

"California Sojourn" is an illustrated diary of the amusements and misunderstandings that befell the author during two weeks in the city of Los Angeles. Through a series of colourful snapshots, it reveals with startling candor the unusual nature of the Californian experience. Featuring crude depictions of certain landmarks, celebrities, and fauna, California Sojourn will alternately delight and worry prospective westward travelers. About the Author: Nathan J. Robinson is an English legal professional. This is his second work of illustrated nonfiction.
