Jan Friedman : Eccentric California (Bradt Travel Guide) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Eccentric California (Bradt Travel Guide):

reviewed in this book, most particularly in the Central and Northern coastal areas. But, much to my surprize, areas that I thought I knew well house many previously unknown and interesting places to visit and things to do. Cool! Definitely worth dropping a few bucks for if you are planning on discovering what makes Californians tick. (Just remember, Northern and Southern California really are two different states, lol.) 2 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Eccentric California By Mrs. Boat 2005 The author Jan Friedman has touched base on so many eccentric places, things and events in California. Her detailed explanation of each place makes me want to pack my bags and go see them all. Coming from Phoenix, AZ I have not seen or been too much in the Golden State, but with 2006 around the corner and a great book. My News Year's resolution is to travel and get coffee stains all over this fantastic read. And to all you want to be PRICE IS RIGHT CONTESTANTS. This author has hit the nail on it's head. Not only did I stay at the Farmer's Daughter Hotel and was prepped with the best insiders information. I also started milking the cows about 4:00am just to become the Showcase Showdown Winner. Yes, I said WINNER!!!!!! I'm very excited to see more with this book in 2006. Thanks for the great information on California. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Triangle Tattoo and Museum is in this first printing! By Madame Chinchilla We are in this marvelous and exciting travel book. I just discovered it after fifteen years again. I have the cover with the page about us on our Tattoo History Wall. What fun! Do come visit. Art with a Pulse! www.triangletattoo.com

This new title is dedicated to the sheer lunacy of California and its citizens, covering the biggest, the best, the wackiest and weirdest of the state's people and places.

From the Back Cover Only in California can you visit an artist in residence at the city dump; buy a ticket to a power-tool drag race; taste wine wearing a Marge Simpson wig; climb a mountain made of hay and old paint; go shopping at the County Coroner's Office; leave your gum in Bubble Gum Alley. Every society needs a fringe and - from San Diego to San Francisco Bay - California's eccentrics answer their country's call. From rooms with a skew to the quirkiest cuisine, the oddest shops to the wackiest festivals, the strangest tours to the most peculiar pursuits, Jan Friedman ventures right to the edge of mainstream tourism and plunges deep into the heart of America's most wonderfully weird state.
