0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Heather Hilburngift for my daughter, she loves it, It is written by her professor at Mercyhurst University.

Recounts the story of the crucial American victory in the War of 1812 Battle of Lake Erie, outlines Erie's naval and maritime history, and tells the details of the reconstruction of the replica of O.H. Perry's relief flagship, U.S. Brig Niagara. Concludes with armchair tours of the ship and its home port Erie Maritime Museum.

From the PublisherThe Pennsylvania Trail of History Guides are a continuing series of handbooks on historic sites and museums administered by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission. Each handbook focuses on a particular site, offering a concise history of the subject and a detailed tour of the grounds, complete with full-color photographs. About the AuthorChris J. Magoc is a professor of American history at Mercyhurst College in Erie. He was formerly Director of Education at Erie Maritime Museum and was responsible for developing the interpretive plan for the museum and ship.
