Peter Muller, Angel Fernandez de Aranguiz : Every Pilgrim's Guide to Walking to Santiago de Compostela before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Every Pilgrim's Guide to Walking to Santiago de Compostela:

probably too old to be a walking pilgrim to Santiago de Compostela so being an armchair pilgrim has provided many hours of prayer and reflection. This book (plus others) have put me on a journey that I never expected. The pilgrim road begins in the northern regions of Europe, through France across the Pyrenes and ends close to the sea in northern Spain. I found it fascinating that people still engage in this trek. the goal is the Cathedral of St James, where the bones of St James are at rest. The wealth of the archeology, the simplicity of the of the road and the deep spiritual connection are described in this book. However, this book will only whet the whistle to pursue more stories.

Every year, some 200,000 people set out on the world's most famous pilgrimage route - 'the Camino', designated a World Heritage Site in 1993. Actually a network of paths with numerous starting places in France and throughout Europe, all routes converge to lead along Spain's northern coast to Santiago de Compostela. Here the shrine of St James, the patron saint of pilgrimage, was discovered in the 9th century. Already the preferred guide for German and Spanish pilgrims, this new English edition is co-published with the Confraternity of St James, the UK's leading organisation for promoting pilgrimage to Santiago. A mix of practical information and spiritual inspiration for walkers, it offers a stage-by-stage guide pointing out places of interest along the way; practical tips for walkers; prayers, blessings and spiritual exercises to nourish the pilgrim spirit and deepen the pilgrimage experience. It is illustrated throughout with maps and photographs, and conveniently pocket sized.

About the Author LAURIE DENNETT is a professional writer and a former Chair of the Confraternity of St James with over 20 years' experience of the Camino. She lives in London and Spain.
