A worthy trip guideBy Joe SanchezRemember seeing these old programs on TV and now the book will be a wonderful guide to visiting local areas. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Anchors away! By Zorro Oscuro This is a great book chalk full of great ideas for day trips around the bay area!

The revised edition of the famous guide to the scenic lanes and byways of the countryside around San Francisco. These drives have been selected for their scenic, pastoral, or historic qualities. Each trip comes with a map and one or more photos. Pack a picnic basket, take along your camera, and escape from the freeways. Follow levee roads in the fascinating Delta region. Take the Old San Juan Grade Road, built in 1915. Visit the ruins of Jack London's Wolf House. Enjoy isolation and wonderful scenery from Marin to the Geysers, and from the Wine Country to the Santa Cruz Mountains.
