As a huge Disney fan, and a Christian, I love how the author has used the attractions history of Disneyland to help illustrate different aspects of the Christian life!! I enjoyed this book so much that I bought copies for my daughter and a friend. Thanks Randy Crane for all of your research hard work!! 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. The Kingdom of the Mouse becomes a pointer to The Kingdom By Geoffrey H. Gentry I personally know Randy. I have experienced his expertise as a travel agent and Disney expert. Reading his blog posts about Faith and The Magic Kingdom got me excited for the book. Jesus taught much through the means of parables. Taking everyday situations and using them as a tool to help people know the Father and see The Kingdom. Randy takes a page from The Book, and uses the details and locations of Disney's Magic Kingdom to help us walk out the Christian life. Please take this book and enjoy it and think a little bit deeper about your faith. This book is great for Disney fans and believers. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Amazing book. By The Boxing Guru This book had me glued to it from start to finish. It's an amazing take on (as the title says) Faith and the Magic Kingdom. I enjoyed it very much.

What does the Indiana Jones Adventure have to do with integrity? How does the Mad Tea Party demonstrate the importance of focusing on Jesus? What can Buzz Lightyear Astro Blasters teach you about success? What makes Tom Sawyer Island unique, and how does it set an example for taking risks as a Christian? What is the history of the Partners Statue, and what does it teach you about how much God loves you? Disneyland is all about story, and God is a God of story--and of visual aids. Faith and the Magic Kingdom combines your favorite Disney theme park attractions (and more) with God's story of love, turning the park into a 3-dimensional parable. Learn to see Disneyland in a whole new way while you experience true abundant life in Christ. Faith and the Magic Kingdom will refresh you, challenge you, and encourage you to be the person God made you to be.
