Great inside look at some of the greatest Tigers playersBy SPORTS NUTLance Parrish takes a look back at the all the players who laced up a pair of shoes as a Detroit Tiger. Great story's and backgrounds of all the greats.A nice read for all baseball fans not just Tiger fans.1 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Few and ChosenBy william57If you're a Tiger fan, this book is great..Worth every penny..Although I disagreed with only a few of Parrish's rankings, the facts and trivia are excellent...0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great trip down memory lane with The Big WheelBy Paul DareIf you grew up in the 80's, remember going to Mich Ave and Trumbull for those games and know exactly where you were when Larry Herndon made that 1984 world series catch in left field, you will love this book. From the forward by Mr. Tiger, Al Kaline to the stories from Parrish's time on the team, this is a great coffee table read.

Former Detroit player Lance Parrish selects the top five Tigers of all time at each position and ranks them in this subjective compendium. Fans may disagree, but they are certain to find his choices interesting, his reasoning for the selections fascinating, and the anecdotes he draws from his years as a Tiger amusing and entertaining. Featured players include Ty Cobb, Harry Heilmann, Charlie Gehringer, Hank Greenberg, George Kell, Willie Horton, and Alan Trammell.

About the Author Lance Parrish has served in many capacities for the Detroit Tigers as a player, a minor-league catching instructor, a minor-league manager, a major-league coach, and a television color analyst. He is an eight-time All-Star and the recipient of three Gold Gloves. He lives in Nashville, Tennessee. Phil Pepe is the author of more than 40 books on sports, including collaborations with Yankees legends Mickey Mantle, Billy Martin, and Whitey Ford. He is a former Yankees beat writer for the New York Daily News and a former president of the Baseball Writers Association of America. Al Kaline is a former right fielder for the Detroit Tigers, a member of the National Baseball Hall of Fame, and a front office official for the Tigers.
