interesting and meaningful, not so much that its overwhelming. Photos help locate the buildings easily. This book will make your visit to Fredericksburg much more fun!

Fredericksburg, Texas is one of the top tourist destinations, drawing 1.5 million visitors every year from every part of the world. Whether you have been there, are there, or plan to go there, on this guided tour you'll experience Fredericksburg's official Historic District, including homes recognized by the Texas Historical Commission and the National Register of Historic Places. And every property is notable for its beauty and charm. Along the way, you'll learn some fascinating facts about this charming German community, including its non-German past, how it came to boast the widest Main Street in America, and how to decode the secret message in its street signs. Best of all, 100 beautiful color photos and detailed directions will make you feel as though you are there, enjoying the Gemtlichkeit known round the world!
