1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Decent giftBy Molly SmithThe book is very short and brief. It's basically a top-100 list of things to do with a brief paragraph for each. I was expecting some unique, off-the-beaten-path type of listings, but it is fairly basic. However, it's a cute gift for current or former residents of Hanover, PA.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Looking Forward to Visiting Hanover PA!By Jane C.I really enjoyed reading The Hanover, Pennsylvania Bucket List. It is an easy read with lots of fun activities for people of all ages. I have visited Hanover many times and had no idea of all that there is to do until reading this book. Hanover Pennsylvania is more than potato chips and pretzels so order this book and enjoy all that the town has to offer!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Such a fun book! This is a book for history buffs, outdoor enthusiasts, music and architectural lovers, connoisseurs of local fermentations and those who just like a beer and good conversation. The Hanover, Pennsylvania, area offers discoveries for the young and those young-at-heart, from across the globe or longtime residents. This book will give you something to do for a few hours or many days. Arrive hungry and use your nose to find what makes this the "Snack Food Capital of the World."

About the AuthorAnn E. Diviney is a writer and poet living in Adams County, Pennsylvania. She spent 25 years as a columnist, features writer and features editor with The Evening Sun in Hanover. She has been published in The Philadelphia Inquirer, The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, The Harrisburg Patriot News, Central PA Magazine, Keystone Conservationist, Mid-Atlantic Country and Country Accents, among others. She is the author of From Sea to Shining Sea: A Hike Across America on Old U.S. 30. Lisa Kane grew up in Riviera Beach, Maryland, and currently resides in Hanover, Pennsylvania, with her husband, three sons and dog, Dixie. She holds a Masters Degree in Library Science from The University of Pittsburgh, a Bachelors Degree in Education from Towson University and an Associates Degree from Anne Arundel Community College. Lisa is the Executive Director of Guthrie Memorial Library in Hanover. She enjoys reading and spending time with her family at the beach. Georgia C. Simpson moved to the Hanover area in 1992 due to her husbands career move. Impressed by the strong family values and work ethic and extensive list of products produced in the area, she marveled in discoveries down every street and alley, where private businesses, old cemeteries, historic markers and well-groomed homes abound. Although not a writer by profession, Georgia seized the opportunity to use this book format to share local treasures with the world. Georgias favorite treasure: the people of Hanover, including Ann, Lisa and Justine, the other members of the Detail Squad. Justine Kilkelly Trucksess is a newcomer to the world of book writing, but she is no stranger to Downtown Hanover! Justine works as the Manager of Main Street Hanover, the local downtown revitalization effort. Growing up an Army Brat, and never one to stand still, Justine has lived in many places near and far, but she has chosen to make Hanover her home.
