Mr John Coast : The Independent Guide to Disneyland 2016 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Independent Guide to Disneyland 2016:

It's short enough to give you the basics and get you started. But that's about it.It's written in UK English ("whilst" "Harbour") and that seems a little odd for a guide to a park in the USA. And it's also absolutely riddled with proofreading errors. Couldn't at least one of the people who worked on it be a competent editor?At least I bought the Kindle edition so I didn't spend much on it.Go for the Unofficial Guide to Disneyland

2016 if you really want an in-depth book that will help you get the most out of the park. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Prospective Disneyland Guide Travel Within the Next 18 Months or Less By Stella Carrier The Independent Guide to Disneyland Resort 2016 (Travel Guide) by John Coast contains information such as the Los Angeles Airport (LAX) and the Disneyland Resort Express that comes with it-listed to be around a 13 mile drive from the LAX airport to Disneyland (location 261), the Long Beach Airport and taking a shared taxi/shuttle from there, mention about the John Wayne Airport (location 240). There is also information on a website to check out in order to confirm some of the Disneyland parades and shows times, introduction to the Disneyland Resort (location 85), Disney lingo (location 112), and more.
