John Baxter : The Most Beautiful Walk in the World: A Pedestrian in Paris before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Most Beautiful Walk in the World: A Pedestrian in Paris:

Aman with a great appreciation of what makes Paris tick. Newsday From the author of Immoveable Feast and Well Always Have Paris comes a guided tour of the most beautiful walks through the City of Light, including the favorite walking routes of the many of the acclaimed artists and writers who have called Paris their home. Baxter highlights hidden treasures along the Seine, treasured markets at Place d'Aligre, the favorite ambles of Ernest Hemingway, Gertrude Stein, and Sylvia Beach, and more, in a series of intimate vignettes that evoke the best parts of Paris's many charms. Baxter's unforgettable chronicle reveals how walking is the best way to experience romance, history, and pleasures off the beaten path . . . not only of La Ville-Lumière, but also, perhaps, of life itself.
