Barbieri I heard about this book from a friend who has been using it for years to plan spontaneous weekend trips. I love the idea of it...it's so easy to stay home every weekend waiting for your yearly big trip somewhere, but this book helps inspire quick getaways to keep you happy and exploring throughout the year! I also love the cover material...it's flexible and has a nice texture to it. There are plenty of great reference photos, bookmarkers for each section of the country, and small maps of each city. Obviously, there are way too many cities to include them all, however as other reviewers have mentioned it would be nice if they included a few more smaller ones. Using this book as a guide for stops on my cross-country trip next
