A great read, before that long awaited vacation to the Grand Canyon!!By Tom T.My spouse and I bought the book to help us get started on a vacation to the Grand Canyon. So far we haven't had time for the vacation, but I am learning all about the Grand Canyon reading in my study.... A great read, before that long awaited vacation to the GC!!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Bought as a bargainBy I Hart Fox MulderThis book is ok, though with the advent of the internets, I don't know what the point of guidebooks is anymore. There are some good tips, but not really anything you couldn't find on trip advisor.It is however handy to have the list of numbers in there. I think we will hit up the North Rim next year.

Writer Susan Frank and cartoonist Phil Frank provide an insider's view of one of America's most awe-inspiring attractions, the Grand Canyon. Ranger Jack a cartoon version of Jack O'Brien, the former Chief of Interpretation at Grand Canyon is the reader's own personal tour guide, offering guidance on every aspect of this popular national park, from the area's geological and cultural history to the best hiking trails and activities. To help plan the perfect trip, Susan and Phil have also included a telephone directory, a list of classes and educational programs, and a chart of average temperatures and precipitation. With Phil Frank's charming illustrations and up-to-date information on accommodations, camping, dining, flora and fauna, and recreational options, The Ranger's Guide to the Grand Canyon is the perfect companion for exploring this remarkable destination.

About the AuthorSusan and Phil started their life together on a houseboat in Sausalito, California. This led to their first book collaboration, a children's book about living on the water. Both avid history buffs, they moved from ship to shore about ten years ago. At present they maintain a 1914 Craftsman-style home in Sausalito, from which they venture into the national parks and other wilderness areas in search of inspiration for a new book. They have two grown children, two grandchildren, two Maltese-cross dogs, and two cats.
