people found the following review helpful. a great collection of real like accounts in Alaska. By Glenn L. KrumA collection on short accounts and excerpts from books on like in Alaska, generally historical and always engrossing. A read that is had to put down and to wonder how you would have faired in these situations.

The Alaskan frontier is revealed at its most inspiring and unforgiving, through the eyes of its awe-struck visitors. An enraptured John Muir first glimpses Glacier Bay; Jon Krakauer marvels at the sight of a grizzly's footprints in the snow; Erma Bombeck comments on the "cruise from hell; " and more.
