Gene Zechmeister, Jeanne Zechmeister : The Santa Fe Fun, Fact-Filled Family Activity Book before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Santa Fe Fun, Fact-Filled Family Activity Book:

This fact-filled activity book has puzzles and stories for everyone in the family. Highlights include stories from Santa Fe's history that appeal especially to visitors traveling as a family. The book includes tips for what to see and where to go around the historic Plaza in Santa Fe, New Mexico. This book can serve as your family's guide to America's oldest capital city! Activities are intended for a range of ages and include coloring, dot-to-dot, word searches, crossword puzzles, mazes, secret codes, matching, and trivia quizzes. Young students will also find it helpful when completing reports about New Mexico and vacation descriptions for school assignments.

About the Author Gene and Jeanne Zechmeister retired to Santa Fe in 2002 after having served on the psychology faculty at Loyola University Chicago for many years. Both are drawn to the beauty and history of Santa Fe, and in this activity book seek to share their love of Santa Fe with families who visit this intriguing city. They are the authors of several psychology texts, as well as several guidebooks for visitors to Santa Fe's Cathedral Basilica of St. Francis of Assisi.
